

WINKLER BIBLE INSTITUTE

Winkler, Manitoba

presents

THE MORNING STAR 1968-69

DEDICATION

We dedicate this publication of the 1969 MORNING STAR to the memory of HILDIGARD SAWATSKY. Hild's sincere Christian testimony and enthusiasm in living will always be remembered by those who knew her.

PEOPLE

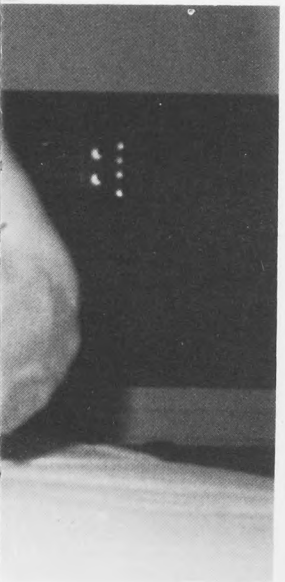

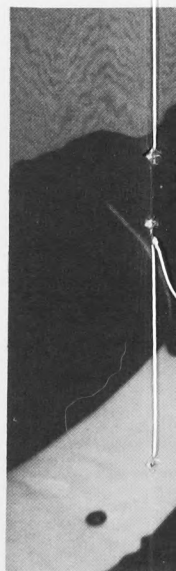

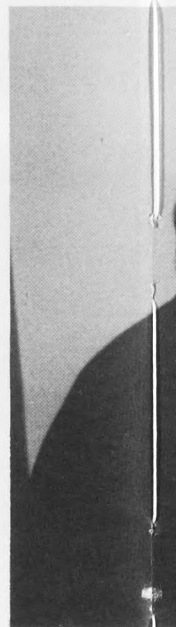

"How many things are there in this world that you now enjoy that would be yours if you were cast upon your own resources? How infinitely poorer the world would be if it had to depend on you alone. But you share in all the gain of a thousand generations. People. Winkler Bible Institute is formed by a great variety of personalities; faculty, staff and students all uniting to form an interesting whole with a large diversity of interests, talents, and appearances."

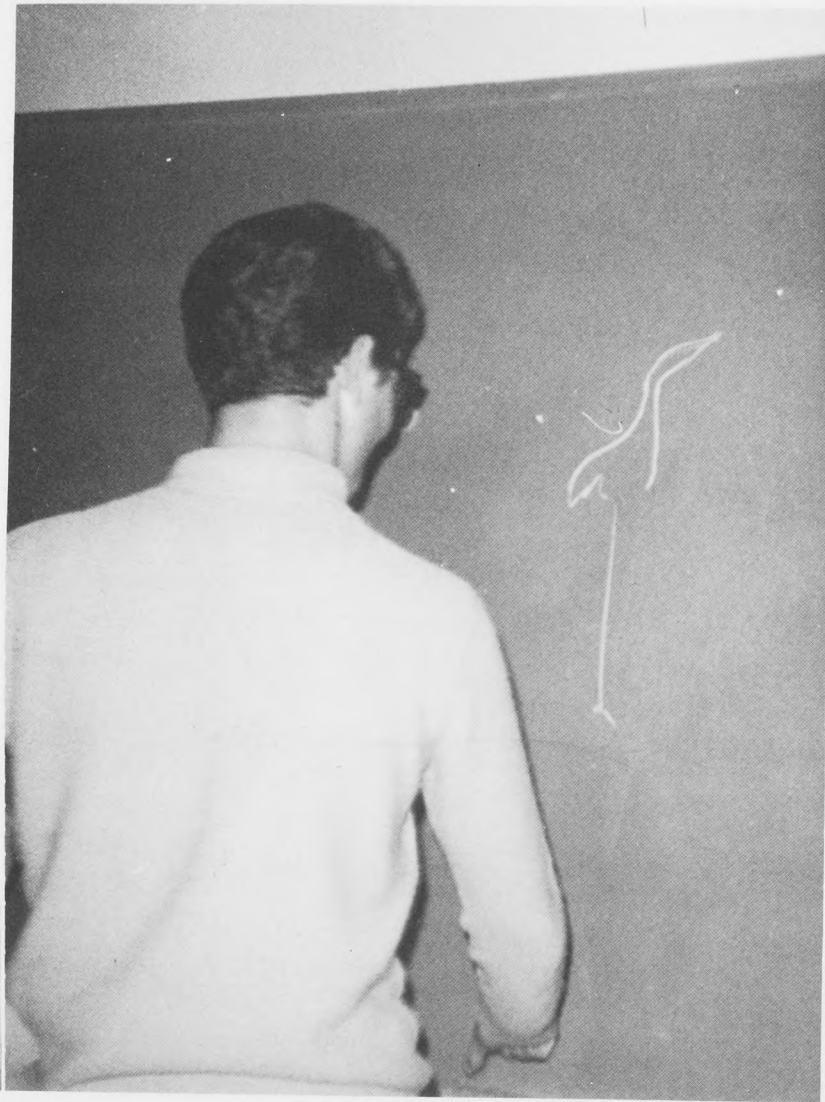

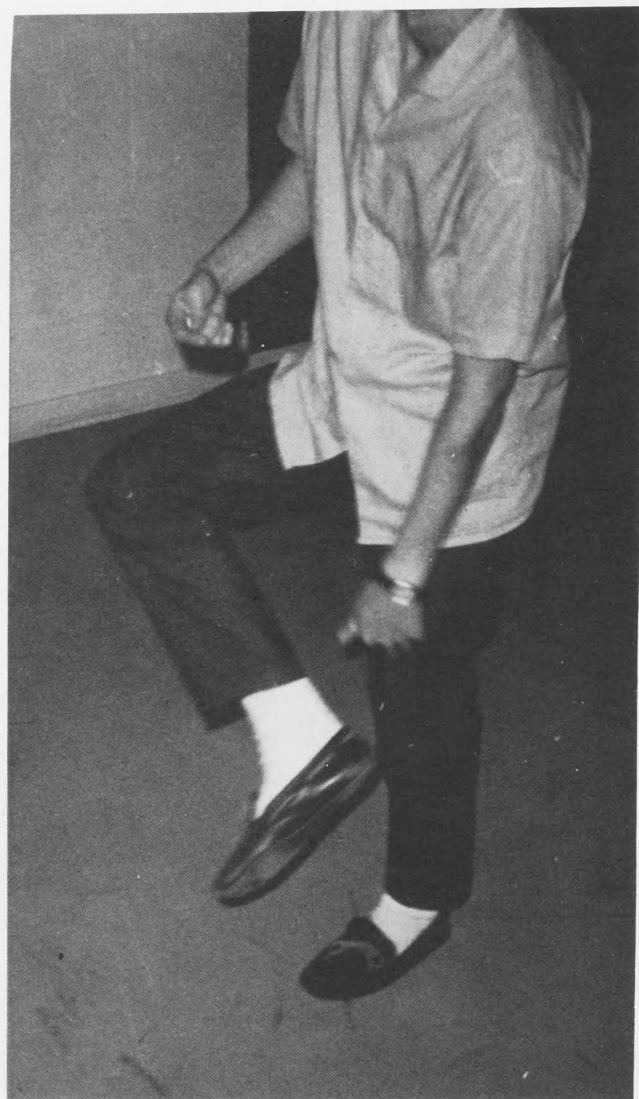

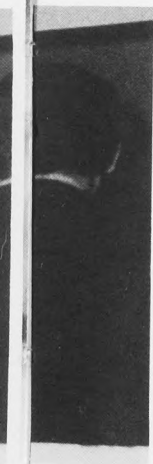

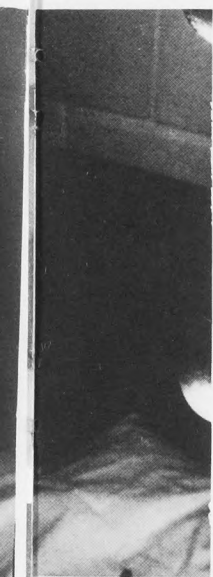

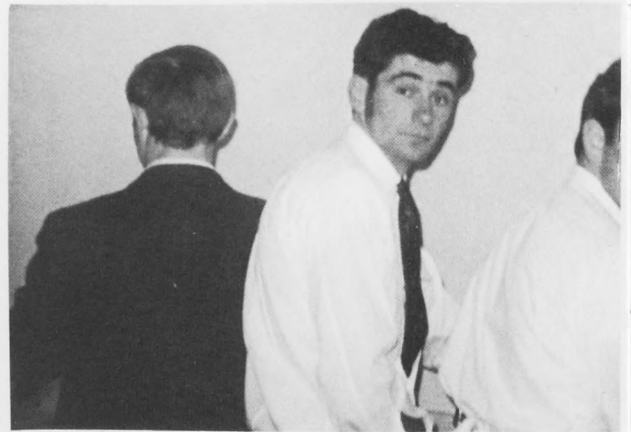

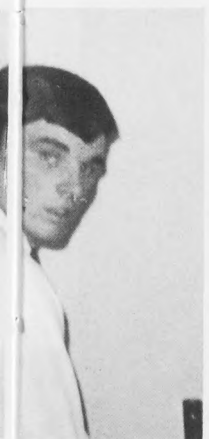

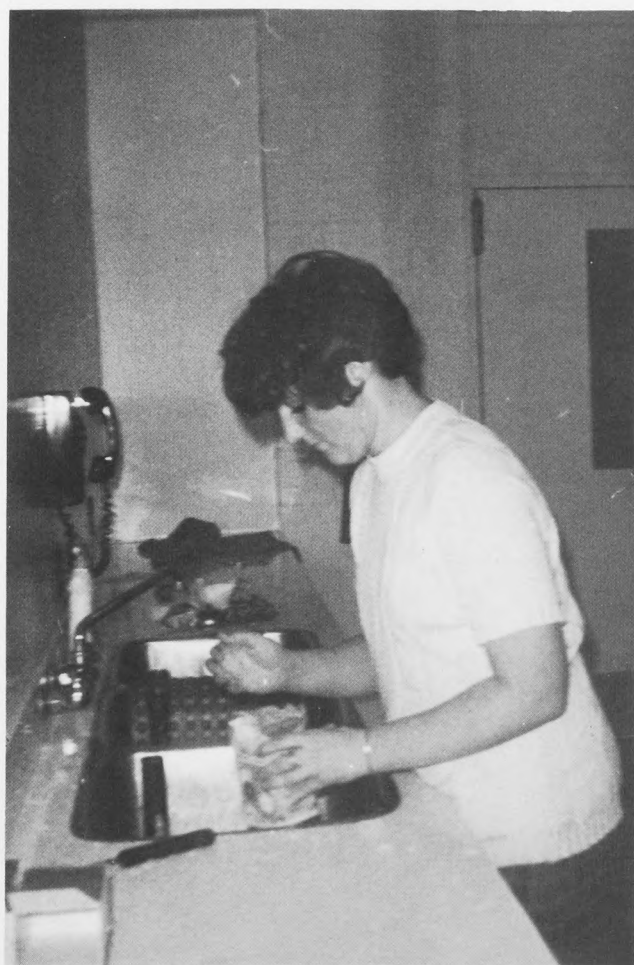

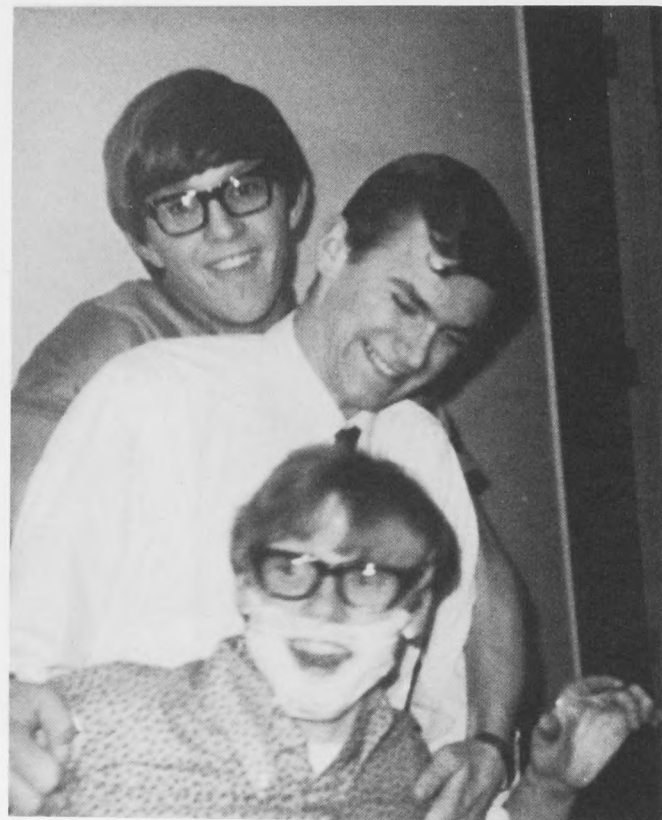

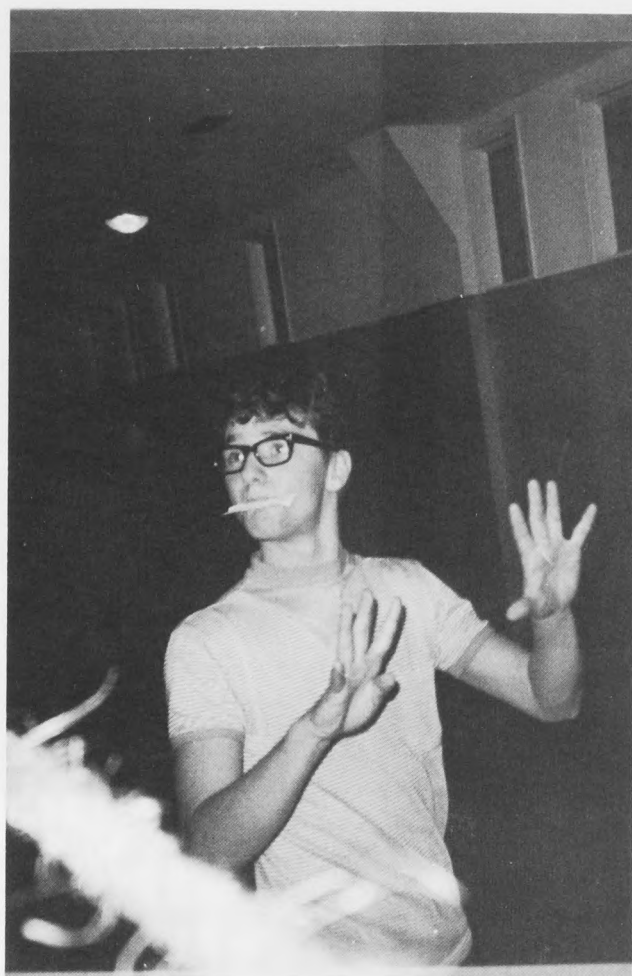

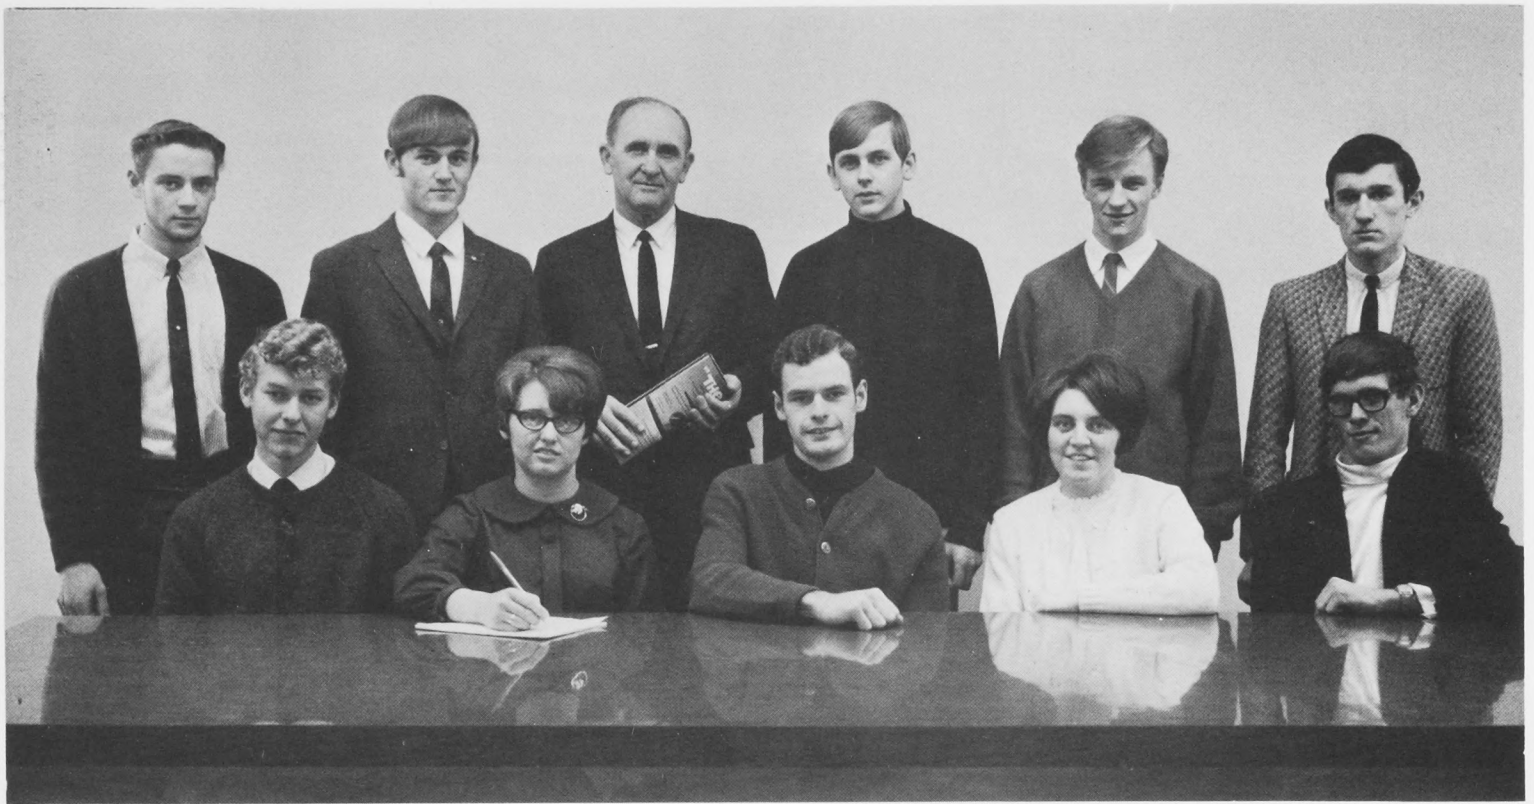

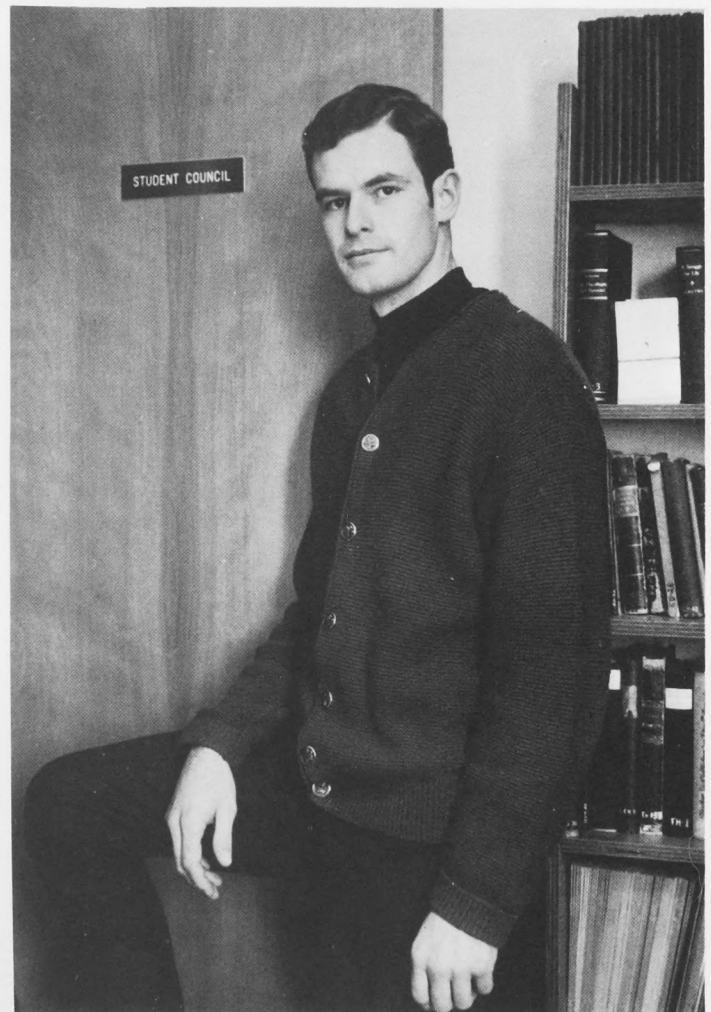

STUDENT COUNCIL

(seated) Waldo Pauls, recreation chairman; Liz Wiens, secretary; Dan Doerksen, president; Eleanor Harder, yearbook editor; John B. Enns, literary chairman.

(standing) Paul Hiebert, vice-president; Sam Nikkel, class president; Mr. J. H. Goossen, principal; Robert Kuhl, treasurer; Fred Dyck, music chairman; Herb Heppner, drama director.

Representing the students of W.B.I. the Student Council, led by our capable president — Dan Doerksen, discussed the various issues concerning student life and curriculum. Student Chapels, held every Friday, were planned by the council as well as the organization of the work day.

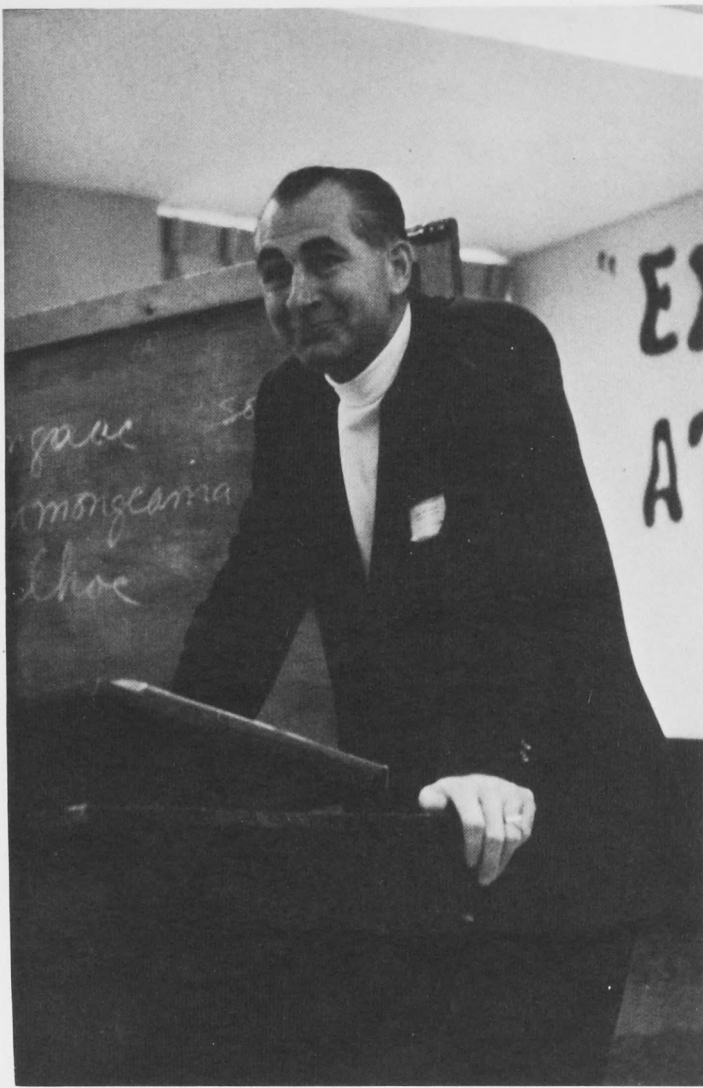

WORK DAY

A work day was held in October in which all students participated cheerfully in spite of the cold weather. Washing windows, housecleaning, and doing other odd-jobs in the town of Winkler as well as helping on farms at home, in some cases, brought us sufficient funds to complete the payment on our stereo in the co-ed lounge and buy a typewriter for the Student Council.

SPEAKERS

Father Hanley

Mr. Delbert Wiens

Jo-anne Horton

Mr. Alvin Dueck

Mr. Henry Dueck

2nd row (L-R): Helga Pepneck, Ruth Dyck, Anne Wiebe, Paul Hiebert, Peter Hoepfner, Fred Dyck, Herb Heppner, Harvey Giesbrecht, Linda Loewen, Virginia Reimer, Lynda Kasdorf, Elizabeth Wiens.

Conductor: Mr. Harold Wiens.

CHORISTERS

MUSIC COMMITTEE

Similar to other institutions of its kind, Winkler Bible Institute has a well-developed musical department. The varied musical talents find expression in the Choristers and smaller musical groups. Continually the dormitories and administration building resound with "the sound of music".

LITERARY COMMITTEE

The "School Daze", the monthly publication of the literary committee provided an avenue of expression for the varied profound writings of "Pnielers". Its publishing of the poetry, prose, and essays composed by us provided an enjoyable newspaper for the entire student body.

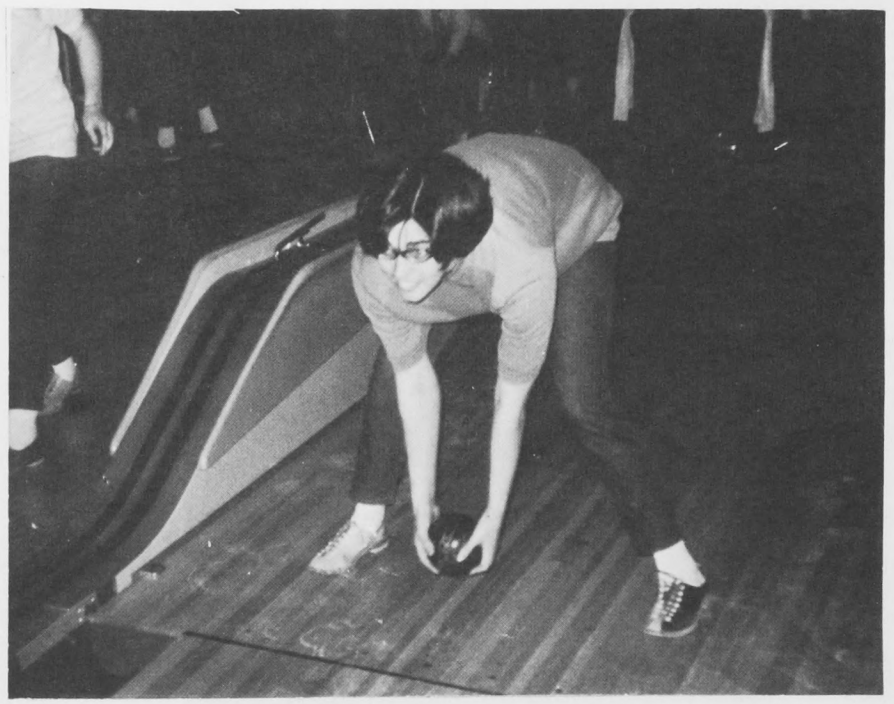

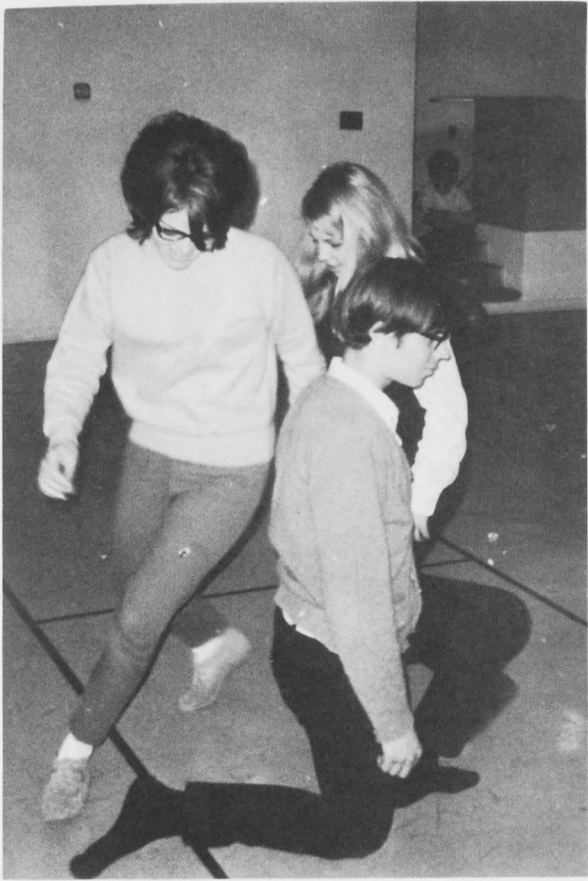

RECREATION COMMITTEE

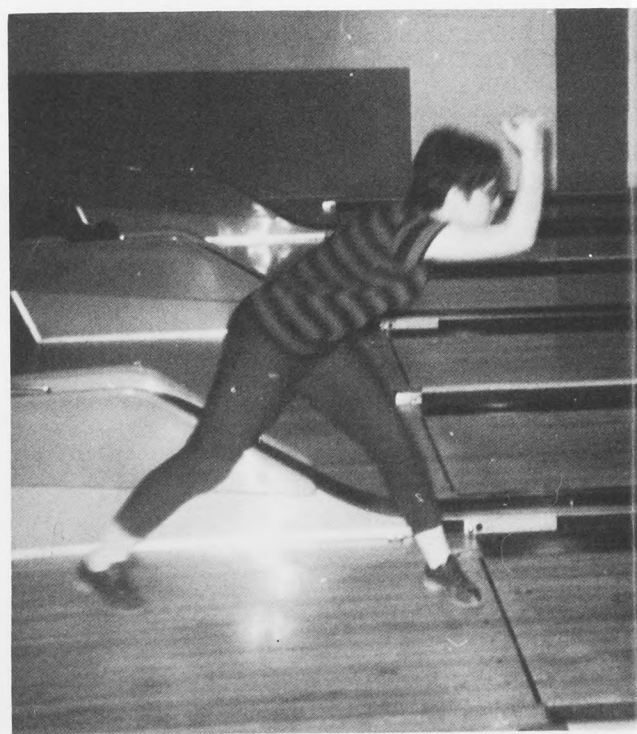

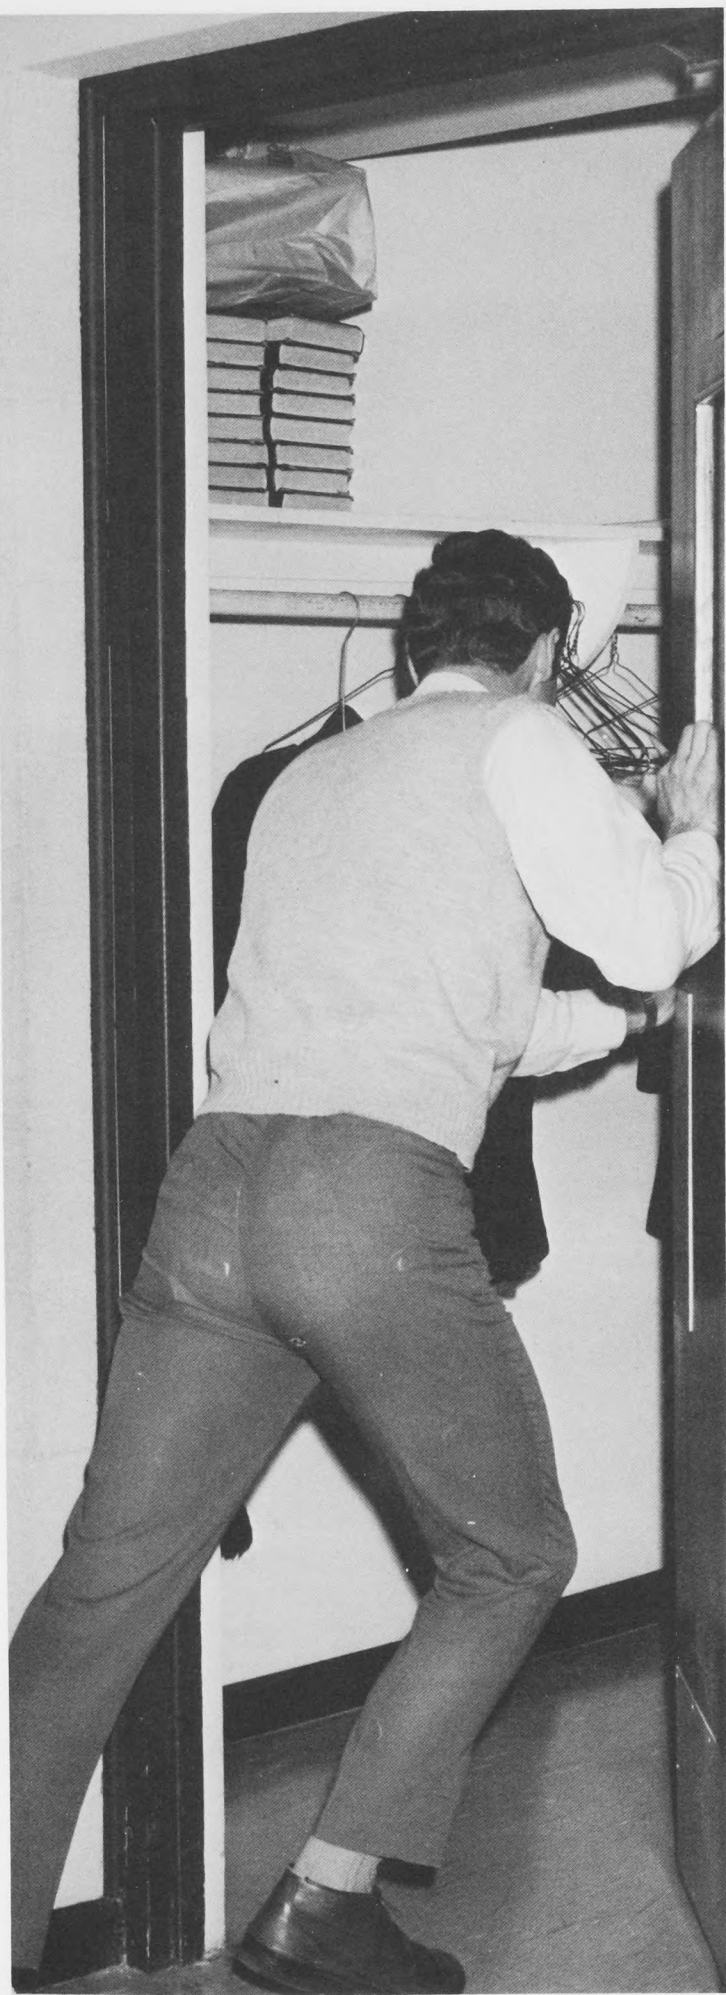

(L-R) Irene Rempel; Bill Reimer; Victor Peters; Waldo Pauls, chairman; Harold Carter, assistant chairman; Rudy Lepp; Virginia Reimer, secretary.

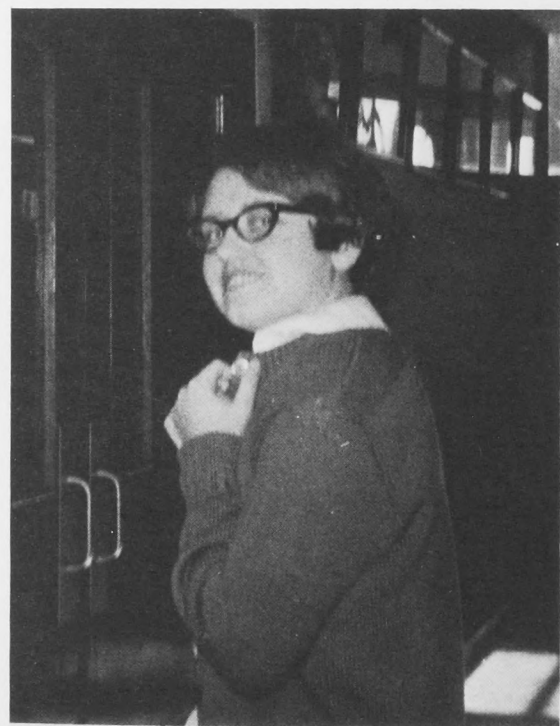

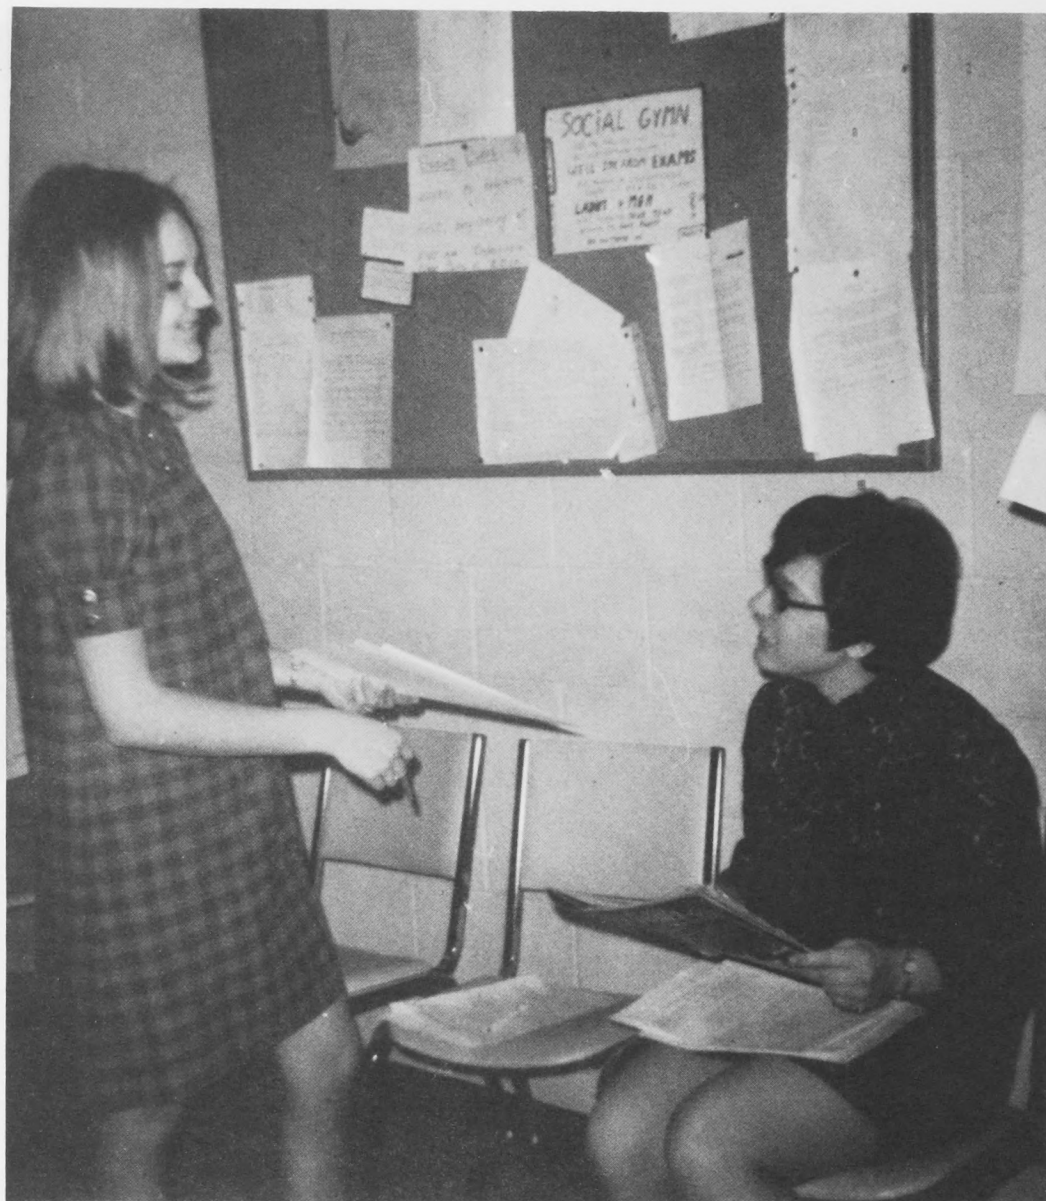

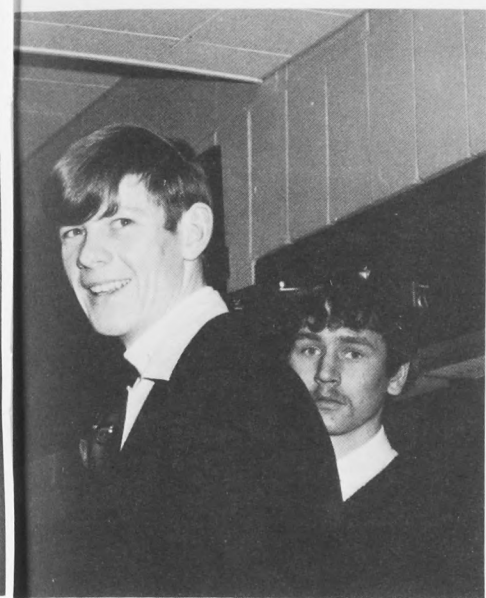

SPORTS

Sports form an exhilaration diversion from the sometimes routine line of studies. The students of Winkler had opportunities to participate in volleyball, basketball, football, and hockey teams besides the regular Tuesday and Thursday Gymn-nights.

DRAMA COMMITTEE

The annual dramatic production of the W.B.I. students was the story of Helen Keller as portrayed in "The Miracle Worker". This committee had the difficult as well as challenging role of choosing the cast and directing the drama.

A vital aspect of the Christian life is active concern for and love of others. The Christian Service program of our school enables students to practise their Christianity by presenting devotional programs in local hospitals and homes for the aged, and by teaching Good News Clubs.

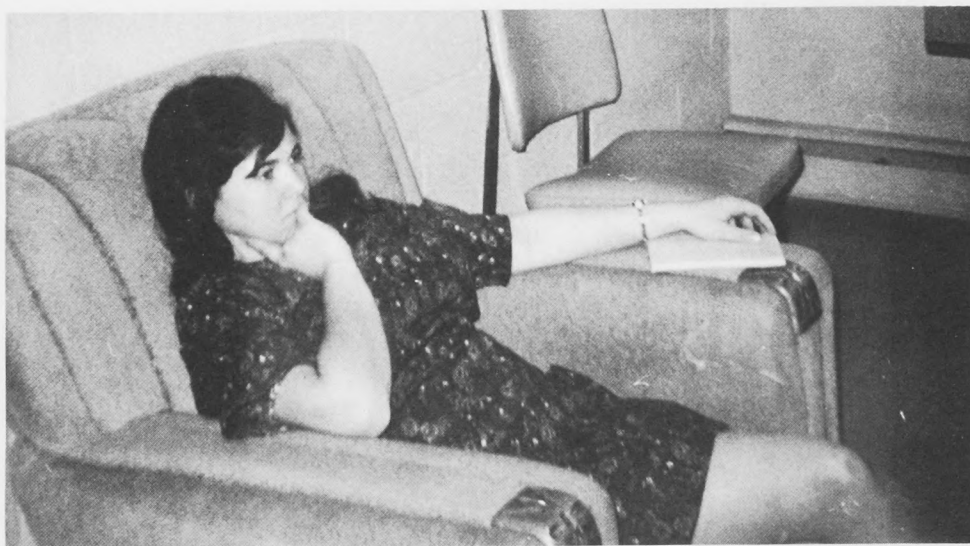

CHRISTIAN SERVICE COMMITTEE

CLASSES

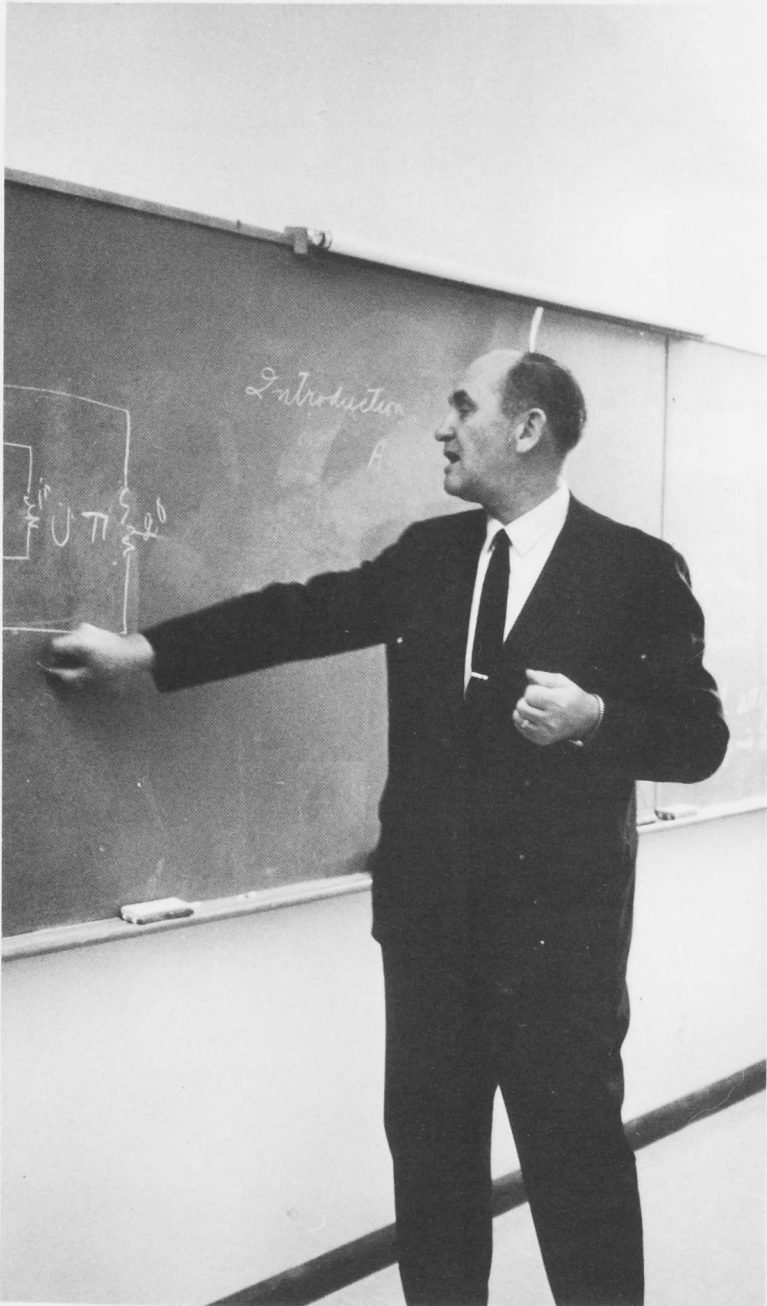

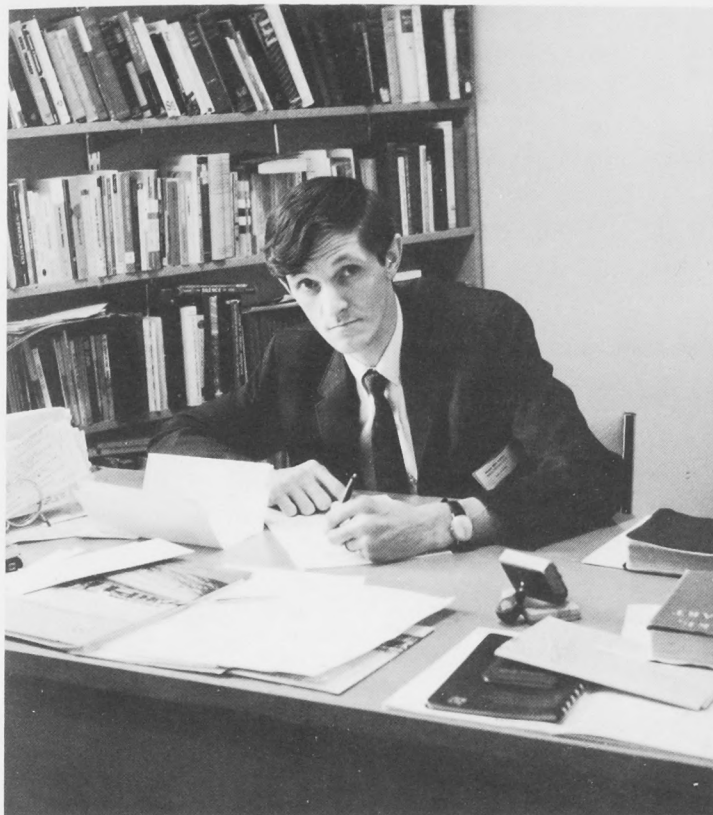

Mr. John Goossen, Principal

We as students have discovered this year how our teachers truly were interested in each individual. We thank them for their willingness to listen to and help us no matter how busy they were. It's to God we owe the thanks for the unity of spirit we had this year.

YEARBOOK COMMITTEE

A word of sincere thanks is expressed to Mr. G. Sawatsky who enlarged all of our pictures, to Mr. Don Wiebe, for his invaluable advising, to the Student Body for their Co-operation in "posing" and to all who contributed to the publication of this book. Above all, God's help and guidance enabled us as a Committee to work together — May God be glorified.

No man is an island, entire of itself,
every man is a piece of the Continent
a part of the main;
if a clod be washed away by the sea,
Europe is the less,
as well as if a Promontory were,
as well as if a Manor of thy friends or of thine own were;
any man's death diminishes me,
because I am involved in mankind;
And therefore never send to know for whom the bells toll,
They toll for thee.

—John Donne

Where In The World

... Are You Going !

SOMEWHERE! God has a ministry and a place for each one of His sons. At College we can be open to its what and where. If you are looking for direction . . . here's a place you can find it.

OVERSEAS? The frontier of Mission is still over there, and I am a frontline fighter. The College challenged me to prepare to be a servant of Christ, among other peoples.

SASKATCHEWAN? The Church is passing through difficult times, and I want to be involved. The College has helped me to see how I can be a minister of Christ, especially at home.
